Characters & Story

Super-sweet, super-innocent Rito, and the girl whose beauty is the pride of the cosmos, Planet Deviluke's Princess Lala, along with Rito's classmate Haruna, are all woven together throughout this cute, ♥ teensy-bit naughty, slapstick romantic comedy!!

Run and Ren

Lala's childhood friend who switches between a boy and a girl when they sneeze. The girl's name is Run, and the boy's name is Ren. Run has made her debut as an idol star!

Lala Satalin Deviluke

The first princess of Planet Deviluke, seat of power for the entire Milky Way Galaxy. She rejected the suitors her father has selected, and ran away from home to Earth. However, after truly falling for Rito, whom she met in a chance encounter, they started living together (?!). Somehow, the fact that she's an alien was a secret, but (without her really being aware of it) a trivial occurrence let it slip out. Still, everybody pretty much took it in stride.

Yuusaki Riko

A first year student in high school. As it turns out, after Lala warped away from her ship, a sudden bath-time encounter led to them living together. He's a late-bloomer when it comes to romance. He was in the middle of trying to confess his feelings for Haruna--the girl he's crushed on since junior high--when, in the heat of the moment, he accidentally confessed to Lala, who appeared in between them. He ended up becoming her lone fiancé.

Yuuki Rito

Sairenji Haruna

A girl who has been in the same class as Rito since middle school. And she secretly likes him?! She is a quiet and mild-mannered, prim and proper beauty. However, when her fear hits extreme levels, she tends to fly into a panic and totally lose it...

Tenjouin Saki

A super-rich and upper-crusty girl who is one year ahead of Rito and his pals in school. She holds herself in high esteem, and burns with a passion that makes her see Lala as a rival. Whenever the opportunity presents itself, you can bet she'll be picking a fight with Lala.

Oshizu

A ghost who died 400 years ago. Mikado built a bioroid body for her that is nearly indistinguishable from a real human, and by possessing it, she is now able to live alongside everyone else.

Ryouko Mikado

The school nurse at Sainan High School, which Rito and friends attend, and an alien like Lala and company. Her secret job is providing medical care for aliens living on Earth.

Kotegawa Yui

A classmate of Rito and friends, who is uncompromising in her refusal to permit any flouting of public morality. She has marked Rito and Lala as people to be extra cautious of!

Peke

A Universal Costume Robot, built by Lala. He can transform into a variety of shapes, taking the form of a dress, a uniform, and more.

Yami (Golden Darkness)

An assassin with a reputation as the deadliest in all the universe. She came to Earth on a mission to take Rito out, but her attitude has slowly been changing ever since she first met Lala!

Momo Belia Deviluke

Lala's younger twin sisters. Nana is the second princess of Deviluke, and Momo is the third.

Nana Asta Deviluke

Yuuki Mikan

Rito's little sister. Rather than taking issue with the whole "Lala is an alien" thing, Mikan welcomes her into their home with open arms. She had to grow up fast and is quite a stable, level-headed person.

Observation Log

4

“Ah, finally! Done with my homework! This is great--now I can relax and enjoy my TV show! ♪”

Later that evening, Mikan sat clutching a mug with a round-eyed bear on it in one hand. A few discarded chocolate wrappers sat on the table, seemingly lined up in a row.

“Gahah, I’m sitting here munching on sweets while I watch TV... I’m kinda like an old grandma...”

THUD! CREAAAK...

“Huh? Upstairs? That Rito, making some kind of fuss again...”

Mikan typically attributed any loud noises or trouble to Lala-san or her brother, but something had her more worried than usual this time.

“Have your sisters come to play again, Lala-san? They said they’d be on Earth for a while, but where exactly are they living? On their space-ship?!”

“You couldn’t possibly have told them to live here, right? Haha, no way...”

“It totally is possible...”

Mikan drank down the rest of her now-cooled herbal tea, and breathed a small sigh.

“Well, even if you did, the more people here, the more fun it is, so it’s fine with me, but... Don’t Nana-san and Momo-san have school to go to on Deviluke? Is there no homework? (Though it sure sounds like history and etiquette in the palace were rough...)”

Mikan thought to herself that it might be nice to have no homework for a little while.

Galaxy Legend ☆ Zastin

PRESENTED BY SAKI HASEMI

Shueisha HQ. Right now, Zastin is in a second-floor meeting room, having a storyboarding discussion with supervisor Uchida.

Uchida: Phew...

Zastin: How is it?

Uchida: It was interesting.

Zastin: Really?!

Uchida: Yeah. It certainly was interesting, but we can't do it.

Zastin: Huh?

Uchida: Well, your story's just too bland. If I had to be specific, I'd say it's like something you'd find in a textbook. Or no, it's like a manga you'd find in an instruction manual.

Zastin: An instruction manual manga?

Uchida: A manga can't just be "that was interesting!" If the readers of Jump finished a volume and just said "that was interesting," it'd be finished!

Zastin: Um... I really don't have a clue what you're talking about.

Uchida: I'm not looking for "that was interesting." I'm looking for "this is interesting."

Zastin: !

Uchida: Your manga ends with the reader going, "That was interesting." But if you want to get picked up for serialization, it's essential that the story feels like it's ongoing! You gotta hook 'em with that "To be continued!" You need the reader to go "This is interesting," and not "That was interesting!" It has to beg the question, "What's gonna happen next?!" And so, unfortunately, yours doesn't have that.

Zastin: Meaning...

Uchida: Meaning your manga doesn't have that novel spark that grabs hold of a reader's imagination. And without it, never mind getting serialized, you'd be lucky to get it printed on the office copier.

Zastin: I-I see... Very well. I will take it back to the drawing board, then.

Zastin trudges his way out of the meeting room. However, he doesn't appear to be discouraged in the slightest. In the next moment, a lone man appears before Uchida in the meeting room.

Editor-in-Chief: Uchida...

Uchida: Sir, he ought to have what it takes to create a great work, but he just doesn't deliver...

Editor-in-Chief: Hey, come on, the girl in it is cute, so isn't that enough?

Uchida: I've got to do something about this guy...

This event occurred one week before meetings to choose the new lineup began.

Be aware that this story is purely fiction made to appear in the pages of this volume. It has no bearing or relation to any actual editorial department (named above) whatsoever.

☆Nana & Momo

Lala's twin sisters. Somehow, I think they manage to seem slightly older than Mikan.

☆New Characters

From a relatively early stage, we had plans for Lala to have a younger sister, but we finally were able to find a place to debut both of them that corresponded nicely with our story needs for new characters.

☆Twins

I wanted to make characters who are twins for quite some time, and in fact, inside my head, I tried to debut Yami as a character with a twin sister, one being rather dark and the other being comparatively nice. However, after a meeting, we decided to wait on that idea, and the concepts left over were inherited by Nana and Momo.

☆Troubles

I struggled with their personalities and peculiarities. As readers know, we'd already debuted a lot of different personality types in the series, so we had to come up with something different from all the others (sweatdrop!). I had a lot of meetings with Yabuki-san about this, and what ended up coming from it was Nana's affinity for animals and Momo's for plants. This allowed us to link them with Celine and Maron nicely too.

☆Their Personalities

Nana is straight-laced and cheerful, and more childlike than Momo. Momo (on the surface) is quieter and more ladylike, and tends to have a more mature way of thinking than Nana (and Lala). Beyond that, she's got a dark, sadistic side too... (Mwa ha ha!)

☆Coming Next...

As for future developments, I think I'd like to first showcase more of Nana's innocence while also demonstrating how she matures into adulthood. In particular, I think there's a lot she still doesn't know about love. As for Momo, while she's got that devilish side, I think future stories ought to contrast that against her inner kindness.

In any case, there's a lot about both of them that we haven't been able to delve into yet, so I'm hoping we can find lots of ways forward to do so! Now, you tell me, readers: who do you prefer, Nana or Momo?

READING DIRECTIONS

This book reads from right to left, Japanese style. If this is your first time reading manga, you start reading from the top right panel on each page and take it from there. If you get lost, just follow the numbered diagram here. It may seem backwards at first, but you'll get the hang of it! Have fun!!

Splendid Siblings

Lala's been living on Earth with Rito for a while now, but he's about to get a couple of brand-new extraterrestrial guests: Lala's beautiful twin sisters, Nana and Momo! The royal twins are troublemakers, but the trouble reaches a whole new level when outer space assassins come gunning for Rito under the fireworks of a town festival. Meanwhile, Haruna makes a big decision—is she ready to admit her love for Rito?!
